Description

After a short break in May we start this month with another wonderful release by Saito Koji.

Similar as his former RB-release "Guide" "Again" consists of eight tracks, each 3 minutes long. And also the music hits a similar tone. Droning, distorted and dense guitar tones are swirling around. Every piece contains a short melodic loop, presented in a very uncommon length. But the pieces are so compact and dense that you don't need a 30-minute repeating loop.

I strongly recommend headphones for a proper listening experience. And then just hit the repeat button.
